

Week Celebrating Non-Violence for a Safe Reading / Berks Community

April 17 – April 24, 2010

Goals

- Events held during National Victims' Rights Week.
- A community wide rally involving both the city and surrounding suburbs to highlight the common goal of non-violence and wanting Reading to be a place of safety.
- Connect with people at different levels so that non-violence is highlighted in every neighborhood in the city and surrounding suburbs.
- Generate an event large enough 300-500 people to create media attention and publicity.
- Connect people with various agencies and groups to develop additional volunteers.

What

- Saturday, April 17th, 12 noon - Kickoff along with Reading Great American Clean-up. (8th & Oley Sts.)
- Week with events sponsored by churches, community agencies, city government at various venues.
- Neighborhoods to create events to bring people together. Events to be listed in local media.
- Saturday, April 24, 11 A.M. walk at West Reading Playground (Pavilion at corner of Museum Rd & Sycamore St., West Reading)
- Saturday, April 24 Block Party at GoggleWorks (2nd & Washington Sts, Reading)

Contact person

Steward Warner
329 N. 5th St.
Reading, PA 19601
610-373-7260
stuwarner@aol.com