

Non-Violence Week

April 17 – April 24, 2010

Non-Violence Week is an annual week-long celebration throughout the Greater Reading area held to educate people about non-violence and to provide a forum to bring people together. Various events will be held throughout the week in the entire community.

Saturday, April 17 – The Great American Clean-Up and Non-Violence week kickoff event.
Starting at 12 noon, 8th & Oley Sts., Reading.

Saturday, April 24 – Join the Peace Walk coordinated by the Berks County District Attorney's office: Walking together to Promote Dignity, Fairness, and Respect Annual Victims' Rights Walk in Partnership with Non-violence Week. Sign-in at 10:00 a.m. Walk begins at 11 a.m., West Reading Playground. Located at 5th Ave. & Sycamore Rd, West Reading (across street from the Reading Museum).

Saturday, April 24 – Come join us at the GoggleWorks from for the Neighborhood Appreciation Day and Celebration of Reading from 12 - 4pm for an afternoon of free fun, art activities, fishin' pond and food in celebration of our great neighborhood! Located at 201 Washington Street, Reading, PA 19601.

For more information contact: Steward Warner:
stuwarner@aol.com or 610-373-7260.
Or check the Reading city website: readingpa.gov.

Add your link to others. Cut out and write your peace thought, wish or action. Bring to the peace walk or block party to add to the chain.

GoggleWorks
Center for the Arts

201 Washington Street, Reading, PA 19601 |
www.goggleworks.org | 610.374.4600
mission: to nurture the arts, foster creativity, promote education and enrich the community.