Evidentiary Hearing

Conditional Use Hearing
1207 North 10th Street
Tuesday, January 25, 2011
5:30 p.m.

The City of Reading is divided into zoning districts which regulate the use of property. Certain types of uses may impact surrounding properties or their neighborhoods. Each zone is designated with certain permitted, conditional and prohibited uses. A "conditional use permit" is provides special consideration of certain specified uses which may or may not be compatible with an area depending on the specifics of the particular project.

The City uses the Conditional Use Public Hearing to evaluate whether a proposed use is appropriate for a particular property and neighborhood. This building is zoned for single family use. There is a history of rental registration since 1994. There is no zoning permit.

.The property owner is seeking a permit to convert the property into a two (2) unit rental property.

City Council and staff will evaluate such items as building placement and size, characteristic of the use, traffic generation, noise, hours of operation, adequacy of parking, circulation, proposed merchandise, landscaping and overall compatibility of the use with adjoining properties and other related development impacts and may impose conditions to assure compatibility with neighboring businesses or residences.
