The City of Reading has been awarded funding from the National Endowment for the Arts' (NEA) Our Town program. This funding goes towards developing and implementing an innovative public arts initiative that fosters community interaction in the neighborhood surrounding GoggleWorks.

The City of Reading, GoggleWorks Center for the Arts, Neighborhood Housing Services (NHS) of Greater Berks, and the 6th Ward Community Association have formed a partnership in this. The goal of these activities is to engage residents in developing a vibrant creative community and improving blighted public spaces in a way that reflects the social character and culture of the neighborhood. Godiva Chocolatier, Inc. has kindly donated funding toward the project.

A mural to be on display on Schuylkill Avenue, led by artist, Juan Carlos Ruiz Jr is the current project being undertaken as part of this initiative.
